

Debbie's Testimony

Sharon Crews, Christina Brannon and I have been prayer partners for almost three years now and I am amazed how God has blessed each of us since we started praying together. One example of this is the formation of our business partnership and the production of Christian Connection.

During January of 2004, God gave Sharon the vision of producing a Christian resource directory that would list churches, ministries and schools as well as advertisements for Christian businesses and professionals. Sharon brought the vision to Christina and me for prayer. During the next year, God worked powerfully to bring the vision to reality.

Christina felt led to be involved and so did I. God is using each of our talents, skills and abilities to work together to help produce Christian Connection. Sharon has all the skills and experience needed to produce a specialized publication, Christina is our sales account executive and I am the writer/editor. It is amazing to me how God brought us together on this project with our unique skills that work so well together.
